

WHAT IS CEE2ACT?

CEE2ACT aims to empower ten Central and Eastern European countries to develop bioeconomy strategies and action plans. This will be done through the CEE2ACT National Bioeconomy Hubs.

WHAT IS A NATIONAL BIOECONOMY HUB?

It is a place for experts and practitioners to join forces to:

- tap into economic opportunities of the national bioeconomy
- strengthen the bioeconomy in the country
- Push bioeconomy on the political agenda

WHO IS PART OF THE NATIONAL BIOECONOMY HUB?

You can expect to exchange with actors from:

- Public institutions
- Industry and SMEs
- Feedstock providers
- Researchers
- NGOs and civil society organisations

WILL YOU BE A GOOD FIT FOR THE HUB?

You will be a good Hub member if you have:

- Expertise, experience and insights into bioeconomy
- Relevance in the sector

WHAT CAN YOU GAIN FROM JOINING THE NATIONAL BIOECONOMY HUB?

- Join international site visits and interactive workshops
- Learn how to make the most of organic resources available in your country
- Learn from national and European bioeconomy experts
- Access tools that help you be more successful in carrying out your bioeconomy work
- Connect and exchange with other experts and actors working on bioeconomy
- Actively contribute to the drafting of the national roadmap for bioeconomy
- Join others in exploring new funding opportunities for your bioeconomy work
